

Housing Resources

Norman, OK (includes a great detailed summary of different housing types for chronic pops)

Dallas, TX (includes milestones/budget info)

Jacksonville, FL (section on chronic, also completed local study with Corporation for Supportive Housing prior to plan)

All of these are on the following website, along with lots of other plans.
<http://www.endhomelessness.org/section/tools/communityplans>

There is a page on the site that is devoted just to chronic homelessness issues that includes more examples of good programs and system-level strategies.
