Report of Community Relations Coordinator

Chairwoman Williams reminded the board that the September 17th meeting will be held at the Eugene James Auditorium.

Advertisement for the vacant seats has been sent out and published on the County website, contact will be made with Clerks of the vacant municipalities.

For the September meeting there will be a guest speaker Meech Carter with the North Carolina League of Conservation Voters to go over the Inflation Reduction Act. Mr. Hemby spoke about the program and gave background on the speaker.

Old Business

Chairwoman Williams stated there will be a meeting with America 250 NC on 8/22 and she will provide updates at the next meeting.

Chairwoman Williams brought up hosting a community clean up and asked the Commission how they wanted to plan it. Mr. Staton mentioned partnering with other organizations that are already doing the work. Chairwoman Williams stated she would look into Pitt County recycling. Mr. Hemby suggested we go to each County we represent. Commissioner Perkins-Williams stated the state will provide materials for clean-up. Mr. Garcia mentioned reaching out to high schools maybe ROTC.

New Business

Chairwoman Williams explain the subcommittees duties and members, she also explained that the feedback we received from the listening sessions will be used to create an action plan. The task of community clean up and listening session action plan was assigned to the Community Issues and Actions Committee with the help of the full Commission.

Mr. Lee mentioned his black belt groups is looking to get involved in community clean up and they would be open to partnering with the HRC on this effort.

Chairwoman Williams stated she met with Mr. Troy with the State HRC regarding voting, he recommended that the HRC sticks to getting involved with information citizens on voting rights but not registering people to vote, that should be done individually not on behalf of the Commission.

Committee Reports

- Executive- No update
- Youth Involvement- Nancy Ray was added to this Committee
- Community Issues and Actions- Veronica Roberson was added to this Committee

Committees should start back meeting monthly.

Questions/Comments

There was conversation about youth and incarceration and the roles the different County departments play and what could be improved.

Councilwoman Roberson mentioned the lack of resources and the accessibility for citizens. Chairwoman Williams stated she will work on creating a resource list and posting it on the webpage. Commissioner Perkins-Williams stated the Community Issues and Actions Committee will help with this task.

Mr. Dawson mentioned he serves on the board of SECU and explained their housing rehabilitation program. He is going to reach out to the board to see if someone would speak more in depth about the program at a future HRC meeting.
